Caspari Begins Operations in Suffolk

SUFFOLK, VA, June 7, 2011 –Caspari, Inc., an international publisher of exquisitely designed and printed paper products, will officially open its new 60,762 square foot warehousing and distribution center located at 5401 Virginia Regional Drive in Suffolk's Virginia Regional Commerce Park on Wednesday, June 8, at 1 pm following a ribbon-cutting ceremony hosted by Suffolk Vice-Mayor Charles F. Brown. The new facility in Suffolk will have 32 new employees.

Caspari, established in 1945 by H. George Caspari, was originally known for importing Christmas cards designed by European artists. Today, Caspari makes every occasion special by working with contemporary artists from around the world and has expanded to include over thirty different product categories.

Headquartered in Seymour, CT, Caspari products are sold worldwide in stores such as Le Bon Marche, Harrods, Neiman Marcus and Bloomingdale's. Caspari has retail locations in Charlottesville, VA and Paris, France.

Assisting Caspari during the relocation process was: the Suffolk Department of Economic Development, The Virginia Port Authority, Hampton Roads Economic Development Alliance and C.B. Richard Ellis.

For additional information on Caspari products, either call 800-Caspari (227-7274) or click www.casparionline.com.
